What are my obligations?

- You must take reasonable care when providing information to your broker or us. We will rely on information you or your broker give us when a) deciding whether to cover you, b) deciding the policy terms, and c) setting the premium. If any information is not true, complete and accurate, it may affect your cover.
- You must take reasonable care to, a) prevent any loss, damage or injury; and b) keep any property covered under this policy in a good state of repair
- If you do not tell us about a change; or you give us incorrect information when telling us about a change, we may treat the policy as if it never existed, reduce the amount we pay for a claim or decline to pay a claim.
- You must notify your broker at least 30 days in advance of any building works starting at the home and before you enter into any contract for the works where the building works will exceed £75,000 including VAT.

When and how do I pay?

- Please contact your broker for details.

How do I cancel the contract?

- You can cancel the policy for any reason in the 14 days after the later of a) the start of the period of insurance; or b) the date you receive your policy documents. We will treat the policy as if it never existed and will return any premium payment to you. We will not do this if you have made a claim.
- After the cooling-off period, you can cancel the policy at any time. To do this, please tell your broker. We will return any premium you have paid in respect of any period after the cancellation date. We will not return any premium if you have made a claim. We may charge an administration fee for dealing with the cancellation
